

I want to voice my opposition to the relaxation of media ownership restrictions. As I see it the popular media at the moment is grossly one-sided, and is not enforcing the democratic principles on which America should stand. Please do not let corporations be the distributors of our information.